seven kilometres north-east

the seduction of forgetting...

"Most theatre companies aim to give us a good night out. Version 1.0 goes the extra mile: it entertains, informs and then contributes to the betterment of our democracy." The Sun Herald seven kilometres north-east is a new production from version 1.0 exploring the seduction of forgetting and the uneasy entanglement of place, tourism and atrocity. What is the price of peace?

On a slivovitz-fuelled adventure across Bosnia, seduced by the visual and aural beauty of the Balkans, Kym spends a night in the Višegrad spa hotel, only to later discover the walls possess dark secrets that no one dare unearth.

What crucial facts are omitted from the tourist guidebook? What happens when a town of great beauty conspires to whitewash and repackage its history?

seven kilometres north-east is an intensely beautiful production combining live performance, evocative music and stunning visuals to explore this provocative dilemma.
